

Games Children Play

More than 100 years ago children lived in Kansas. They played games with their friends. They also had special toys. Do you play games with your friends? Do you have special toys?

How do we know what games children played a long time ago? We can look at old photographs. What are these boys doing for fun?

What toys are these girls holding?

